STRUCK BY AN AUTOMOBILE. Shortly before eleven o'clock last night Sheriff Moncure, of Stafford county, was knocked down at the northwest corner of King and Fayette chief to order the officer to appear bestreets by an automobile in charge of Stephen Davis, and Town Sergeant Saturday night. Burrill, of Potomac, Alexandria county was struck and turned about in the twinkling of an eye as he was about to board an electric car. Neither sustained any material injury. Davis was cited to appear in the Police Court this the robbery was reported and that the morning. When the case was called it appeared from the evidence that an in- immediately. coming electric train had stopped on the west side of the Fayette street railroad track and as it started to move east the sheriff and the sergeant ran from the corner for the purpose of boarding it. The automobile, in which several men were seated, was going up King street at the time, and Davis, who was operating it, seeing the sheriff in front of the machine, attempted to steer clear of him, but failed to accomplish his purpose, knocking him down and striking the sergeant, who had his hands upon the railing of the electric car at the time. Davis stopped the automobile a short distance away and returning offered any aid which might have been needed. Chier Goods testifled that the machine was running at the rate of 22 miles an hour, but Davis alleged that it was being driven at 14 miles. Justice Caton fined the latter the future that prisoners are searched $5 for reckless running of the automo-
